

Shrila Sadananda's Vani (video)

But: it is as if he [Gopa Kumara] was attracted by something, something that prevents him to come to rest, that makes him march on. It will be the same when he enters the realm of mukti [the realm of liberation from the bonds to the world of Maya], as we are going to see. There it will be the same, that he will go on and on as if he were driven by something. And then Ishvara [the LORD] says to him: "Don't stop here! Keep going!" It is only through the kripa of Bhagavan [God in His Fullness], through His grace, that someone, who is – let us say – enchanted by the primordial matter or by the nirvanam, the negation of all matter, all vitality, that someone who is enchanted by that, can free himself of it.
